

8, Separation garbage

We separate the garbage.

For example, papers are burnable garbage but aluminum cans are not.

If you mix them up, the incinerator will be broken. Also, toxic substances such as dioxin will also be generated.

Separation of garbage is important to protect the environment.

