

11, Program based studies

We have program based studies at ours school .

We decide the theme and actives in each home room class.

For example, we make picture books and exhibit in a museum local.

Through this study, we can lean the important of cooperation.

Program based studies is an important activity for us.

